SEVEN MEN DIE IN TRAIN WRECK

Collision Occurs Because Of a Blinding Rainstorm.

WAS A MOST HORRIBLE SIGHT

Fast Freight, Rushing 45 Miles an Hour, Strikes Slow Moving Work Train—Seven Killed Outright and Seven Are Injured.

Jefferson, Pa., Aug. 21.—Plunging through a blinding rainstorm, at the rate of 45 miles an hour, early Sunday, a fast freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad crashed into a slowly moving work train at Sang Hollow, killing seven and seriously injuring seven others of the work train crew. Three of the latter will proobably die. Engineer Woods was the only member of the crew of the freight train who was injured.

The work train had stopped at a water plug near Sang Hollow to take water. A Fort Wayne freight was following, and because of the rain the engineer of the freight was unable to see the work train until just before the crash. The engineer of the freight jumped, and was fatally hurt. The fireman remained on the engine and was uninjured. When the freight engine crashed into the work train it ploughed its way through the cars. All of the laborers and others of the work train crew were asleep, and those that were killed probably never knew they were struck.

According to reports, Engineer S. N. Woods, of the freight train, had increased the speed of his train just before the crash, that he might take water in the water pans along the track, and in so doing is said to have exceeded his orders.

When news of the wreck reached this city two wreck crews were sent out.

The conditions as described by members of these crews upon their arrival were appalling. Dead and dying were lying on the tracks, while some of the injured were hanging out of the windows of the "cabin" car crying for help and begging to be saved from fire that had started in the wreck.

The cries of the wounded, the burning cars, the overturned engines, and the sound of escaping steam combined to make a most terrible sight. The crew of the freight made an attempt to rescue the men from the cabin car, but owing to the fact that the doors were battered in on the wreck and the timbers were crushed so that entrance was impossible, it was some hours before it was found out how many were dead. Four men were dead when taken out. The others died after being taken to a hospital.

It was reported that four others are in a dying condition. According to reports, Engineer S. N. Woods, of the freight train, had increased the speed of his train just before the crash, that he might take water from the water pans along the track, and in so doing is said to have exceeded his orders.

When the news of the wreck reached this city two wreck trains and crews were dispatched to the scene of the wreck.

Some of the injured, who had been thrown from their bunks to the side of the tracks, were crying and moaning on the ground.

When the wreck had been cleared away it was found that part of the last car on the work train had been thrown 150 feet up a hill at the point of the wreck, and one set of the trucks had been hurled in an opposite direction 75 feet into the river.

Threats of lynching became very frequent, although Judge Kimsey apealed to the people to allow the law to take its course, and went so far as to order a special term of the superior court to convene at Cleveland, on Monday morning, to try the negro.

New Tariff Schedule.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Ecuador has proclaimed a new tariff schedule which has just reached the state department and will become effective Nov. 1.—The schedules makes many changes in the existing tariff. It provides for a complete reclassification and makes reductions on some classes of goods sent from the United States to Ecuador, but makes alterations in the present duties on exports from this country to Ecuador. A reduction of about one cent a pound is made on manufactured steel, iron, brass, bronze, copper and tin.

Savages May Dig Canal.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 21.—George Edwards, an explorer in South Africa who has attempted to Christianize the savages in Brazil and Patagonia, contemplate bringing to the attention of the government a plan to use these savages on the Panama canal. Edwards said they would make good workmen and once having been brought into touch with civilization would return to their own country and enlighten their benighted brethren.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

The storekeeper who does not advertise and who does not systematize his business might as well put up his shutters. Judicious advertising means financial success. Never in the history of the commercial world has advertising occupied so dominant a place as it does today.

Hon. I N. Withers, Democratic nominee for State Senator from Lake county, was a welcome visitor to this office yesterday. He is a pleasant gentleman and The Sun predicts that he will make Lake a good representative in the upper branch of the Legislature.

Col. John E. Lambeth, for years one of the leading citizens of Gainesville, but for several years past a resident of Atlanta, Ga., in renewing his subscription to The Sun, writes: "We enjoy reading the paper very much, indeed, and are glad to know that Gainesville is growing so substantially and rapidly."

Jeff Simons has opened a fish and oyster market in the rear of the Gainesville Furniture Co's. store. He is an old fisherman and thoroughly understands the business and will keep nothing but the best. If you want the best fresh and salt water fish give him a call, and when the oyster season opens remember that Jeff knows how to open oysters without sending them to you full of shells or cutting them into smithereens. Phone 340. See ad.

Our idea of a good citizen, and we are glad there are many in Gainesville, is one always ready to give, according to his means, to community enterprises. He takes stock in them all, and doesn't lose his faith if an occasional venture proves bad. He is not afraid to buy real estate and to pay what it is worth. He talks up his town at home and abroad, thinks it is the healthiest place on earth, believing it to be destined to be the biggest city in its section, and wants to be buried here when he dies. And he's worth a whole regiment of the lukewarm kind.

Rev. Dr. J. P. DePass, pastor of the Methodist church at Arcadia, made an agreeable call at The Sun office yesterday. Dr. DePass was in charge of the Methodist church here when the editor of this paper was a boy, and the writer can vouch for the fact that he did much to build up the church in this city. The pastor was only paid about three hundred dollars in those days, but he labored with the same zealousness as if he were receiving three thousand. Dr. DePass is delighted with Arcadia and refers to the country as "the Garden of the Gods." He left yesterday for a trip on the East Coast and may extend his trip to Key West, being on a month's vacation.

Was Member of Dalton "Gang."

Lufkin, Tex., Aug. 21.—John D. Roper, with many aliases, who murdered two fellow prisoners, white men, named Trawick and Crowder in the county jail here Aug. 15, beating them to death with a heavy bucket while they slept, ended the chapter of his fiendish crimes by hanging himself in his cell late Sunday night, using a string from a blanket. He acknowledged a few days ago that he was a member of the Dalton gang of bank robbers at Longview, Texas, in 1892. Sheriff Watts has also positive evidence that Roper is the man wanted in Arkansas for the murder of Sheriff Boyd in 1892 and for whom a reward of $1,000 was offered. Roper has acknowledged various other atrocious crimes in Texas, Louisiana, and Arkansas.

Son of Preacher Stabbed to Death.

Bristol, Va., Aug. 21.—Scott Howington, son of an aged preacher of Bristol, was stabbed to death by Muncy Talley, of Johnson City, Tenn., in a row in an alley adjacent to a saloon on Lee street. It is thought the men were both drunk and suddenly fell out. Tally stabbed his victim in the breast and the knife pierced the heart, killing him almost instantly. Tally was pursued, but made his escape, and is still at large. A posse is in pursuit and officers have been sent to nearby towns.

Whole Family Lost at a Ford.

Mountain Rest, S. C., Aug 21.—While trying to cross Chauqau creek near this place, early in the morning John Watkins, his wife and little child were drowned. The creek was swollen from heavy rains, and the wagon was overturned in the swirling waters. Coroner Harbin, of Seneca hurried immediately to the scene of the tragedy to hold an inquest.

Scott Returns from Manila.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—Lieutenant Hugh L. Scott, former governor of Jolo, arived Saturday on the transport Thomas from Manila enroute to Washington. He is to relieve General Laber Mills as superintendent of the Military academy at West Point.

Man Killed for 25 Cents.

Cordele, Ga., Aug. 21—A shooting affray between two negroes took place here in which Henry Jones shot another negro by the name of Hamilton so badly that he will die. The difficulty occurred over 25 cents. Jones fled, but is being pursued by the sheriff and deputies, and it is thought will be captured before morning.

Home for Chorus Girls.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 21.—According to a report received here from the east, John D. Rockefeller has under consideration a plan to endow a home for chorus girls to the amount of $100,000.

Pale? Thin?

How is it with the children these days? Have they plenty of grit, courage, strength? Or are they thin, pale, delicate? This reminds you of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It does great things for children. It gives them a good appetite, improves their digestion, builds up their general health. Ask your doctor if he endorses this. We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

CAUSE OF STRIKERS CHEERED

Excitement in Macon Is Intense Over Street Railway Strike.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 21.—The strikers of the street car company and the company are further apart than ever and the excitement here is intense.

Sunday afternoon nearly 5,000 people packed the city auditorium to attend a mass meeting, called by the strikers for the denunciation of the company and its methods. Among the speakers was Congressman Bartlett, from this district, who delivered a strong speech in favor of the laboring man.

A number of cars have been derailed, the strikers and their sympathizers obstructing the tracks in some instances, and in others greasing them with lard. Torpedoes have also been placed on the track. No serious injuries or damage of any sort have been reported.

It is stated that the sympathizers and not the strikers are doing the damage. The strikers are about seventy-five in number. The company is firm in its determination not to employ a member of any union.

Public subscriptions are being taken up to tide the strikers over until the company is forced to come to their terms. Several huundreds of dollars have thus been raised. Thousands of people are walking in preference to patronizing the company. The labor union men generally are walking. Serious developments are hourly expected. Arbitration is being talked of, but there seems very little likelyhood of any agreement being reached for some time. The cars are running pretty regularly, but men have to be sent in front to look for obstructions, torpedoes and the like.

The strikers are keeping sober, and are holding meetings on street corners, at which some of them tell of their experiences with the company. The lives of conductors and motormen now working with the company are being made miserable by the cries of "scab" and the fear of harsh treatment.

Negro Assaults Little Girl.

Cleveland, Ga., Aug 21.—Bob Moore, committed an assault upon the 8-year-old daughter of J. C. Hood, of Nacoochee valley, about 10 miles northeast from here. Moore has been arrested and lodged in the Cleveland jail. Considerable excitement prevails, but the people are comparatively cool. Judge Kimsey has called a special term of court to be held Monday and the grand and traverse jurors are ordered to give their attendance.

The Hymn That Fitted.

On the evening of the first Sunday after their removal from their house in the suburbs, which was the only home the children had ever known, to the top floor of a seventh story apartment house, the family gathered around the piano for the usual hour of song, each member in turn, according to time honored custom, requesting a hymn of his choice. When ten-year-old Marjory's turn came she said, "I think the most appropriate hymn is:

"I'm nearer my heavenly home today
Than ever I've been before.

"I think of it every time I come up in the elevator."—New York Press.

Fine Art In Show Windows.

It is a common error for dealers to put too many shoes in their window. In fact, some windows would lend the impression that the stock was in the window and the samples on the shelves. Said a shoe manufacturer who has traveled extensively: "One of the most impressive windows I ever saw contained but one shoe in each window. Each was a fine shoe, mounted on a standard in the center of the window. From this shoe red and white ribbons were draped in various directions, much like a sunburst. A small, neat sign told the story. Everybody stopped to look."—Shoe Retailer.

Mozart's Work.

Mozart lived thirty-seven years. His first mass was composed when he was less than ten years of age, and the enormous quantity of his compositions was the work of the succeeding twenty-seven years. Mozart wrote forty-one symphonies, fifteen masses, over thirty operas and dramatic compositions, forty-one sonatas, together with an immense number of vocal and concerted pieces in almost every line of art.

At Least a Choice of Worries.

"Do you think that wealth brings happiness?"

"No," answered Mr. Dustin Stax; "it doesn't bring happiness, but it gives a man a little bit of option about the kind of worry he will take on."—Washington Star.

FATS VS. LEANS.

Fun For All Who Love the National Game Thursday.

Gainesville will have the pleasure of seeing a fine game of baseball tomorrow afternoon. The Fats and Leans will play for the benefit of the Cemetery Association. There are many good players on both teams and, as the cause is a good one, should have a good attendance.

A petition will be presented to the merchants to close from 3 to 6 o'clock to attend the game. As this is Thursday afternoon and the dry goods stores being closed, it is thought that there will be no trouble in getting the others to agree to close.

H. E. Taylor, cashier of the First National Bank, will be in the game. He is considered one of the heaviest hitters on the Fats. L. C. Lynch is also scheduled to knock several shingles off the little house just on the outside of the left garden, and says that he will guarantee to give to the Cemetery Association all the silver that is given him for his long drives.

Everyone come out and witness the work of these players. There will be others just as good as those mentioned. In tomorrow's Sun will appear the line-up of both teams.

LIEUT. BELL WAS HERE.

Has Been Appointed Commandant of the University of Florida.

Lieutenant L. R Bell, first lieutenant of the Thirteenth United States Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myers, Va., has left the city, after two or three days spent here.

Lieutenant Bell, who enjoys the reputation of being one of the most competent officers in the United States Army, has been detailed by the government as commandant of the University of Florida. He visited the grounds, inspected the grounds and buildings, and complimented the arrangement of both very highly. He believes that the site will be an ideal one for the college and its outdoor purposes.

Lieutenant Bell also expressed himself as being well pleased with Gainesville. He was surprised at the number of handsome homes already built and under course of erection, as well as the general thrift and energy of the people.

A Sad Death.

Again the Angel of Death has visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Brown, and carried dear sweet Attie on its wing. He was one who was loved by all who knew him; he has left a vacant chair in his home that can never be filled. We hope he has gone to a brighter home above, where there will be no weeping and sorrowing there and Christ will wipe all tears away, for he now can lean upon the "everlasting arms."

But God doeth all things well. We can't understand why He should call away one who has just began to bloom in life, why he should then be cut down, and all the fragrance wasted away—though his darkest clouds have silver linings. Attie was just seventeen years of age, and his spirit took its flight to Heaven the 21st of July. Fearless, he entered death's cold flood. In peace of conscience he closed his eyes. His only trust was Jesus' blood, which insures certain hope to rise.

Dear Attie was a boy loved by the younger set, admired by all who met him. You do not see how you can live without him, but the fairest of flowers are always plucked first, so we should not complain. We do not know who will be called next. We can say a dear sweet face that once shined so bright has been hidden from us; that it will never brighten us again on this earth. How you all miss him only your Heavenly Father who took him from you knows. He was always quiet and thoughtful and kind to everyone, and during his long illness he was patient and tender to all. His physicians and loved ones—father, mother, brothers and sisters—did all they could to keep him with them; but their efforts and prayers were of no avail, so you must know that it was your Father's will to take him and we have the sweet hope that Attie is waiting, with his dear sisters, to welcome you all when you cross the river of death.

The funeral services were conducted by neighbor friends, and the body was laid to rest in the cold earth, to await the trumpet of God, when the dead shall be changed and be like Christ's glorious body, and sing his praises forevermore.

Fifteen million umbrellas are said to be manufactured in this country every year.

In a few years from now we will be hearing of reunions of people who once were incubator babies.

During the last twenty years nearly 1,000,000 subjects of the Czar have crossed the ocean in search of liberty.

The Angora Goat Society of Kansas City has butted in and will endeavor to popularize goat meat as a table delicacy.

Chicago has more prisoners awaiting trial for murder than any other large city in the world with the exception of St. Petersburg and Rome.

The City Dads do not believe in publicity in regard to publishing ordinances. They think the people should be kept in the dark in regard to such matters.

It is estimated that there are 770,000,000 postal cards used annually in the United States, while Germany uses 1,161,000,000 and Great Britain 618,000,000.

A New York man who has failed in business says he needs half a million dollars to put him on his feet. That amount of cash would put this writer on golden wings.

It is said that the hides of the American live cattle sent to England to be killed and eaten are by prearrangement all sent back across the Atlantic, there to be tanned and mayhap reshipped to England as leather or in boots and shoes.

A New Orleans recruiting officer finds that cigarette smoking and late hours have unfitted most of the young men of that city for military service. There are some other important things that cigarette smoking and late hours unfit young men for.

HOW UNCLE SAM LEVIES TAXES

One striking feature of the internal revenue laws is that they never look to quality or value, but always to quantity. The tax on 1,000 cigars is three dollars, no matter whether they are "Pittsburg stogies" or the Key West brand whose retail value is, say, twenty-five cents each. The tax on a "Pittsburg stogie" is about one-fifth of the retail value; it is less than one-eighth the value of the Key West cigar. The country plow-boy who comes to town Saturday afternoon and invests five cents in a package containing three "Old Virginia Cheroots" pays as much tax into the treasury of the United States in making his purchase as does the fellow that buys three cigars for a dollar. The tax on the cheapest "twist tobacco" is six cents a pound; it is the same on the best grade of fine cut. On a barrel of "common beer" worth four dollars, the tax is one dollar; on a barrel of the best grade of ale, porter or beer, worth twelve dollars, the tax is still one dollar. The man who buys a quart of Georgia corn whiskey for fifty cents pays twenty-two and one-half cents for the whiskey and twenty-seven and one-half cents tax. A quart of eight-year-old Kentucky bourbon worth at retail one dollar and a half, has paid but twenty-seven and one-half cents tax, the other dollar and twenty-two cents and one-half being the value of the goods over and above the tax. The negro frequenter of the New Orleans "honky-tonk" pays as much tax to the government in the purchase price of the "booze" consumed by him in a night of wild debauch as does the swellest New York millionaire in an evening spent at his club.

Postmaster-General Cortelyou has under consideration a plan of supplying farmers on rural routes with up-to-date weather forecasts. It is proposed that the weather bureau in Washington shall telegraph its morning forecasts to the postmaster and that they shall stamp the weather indications on the back of each letter, together with the date, exact time and place at which the letter is received. The weather forecasts now furnished the farmers are at least twelve hours old.

There are five candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Georgia. Hoke Smith and Clark Howell are the leading candidates and they have been waging their campaign for a year or more. The readers of The Atlanta Journal and Constitution will hail with delight the close of the fight between these two candidates, for there has been little else than "Smith" and "Howell" in these two respective journals during the past six months. The primary occurs today.

One hundred and fifty thousand models of patents that have been granted in the past seventy-five years are to be disposed of by the patent office. A good number of these will be given to the various colleges in the country. Some, whose historic associations render them valuable as relics, will be sent to the Smithsonian institution. A great many of these models are of patents taken out by women.

The paramount object in the culture of the grape in most parts of the world has been the obtaining of wine. The extent of this will be surprising and hardly believed by those not acquainted with the statistics. Thus, for instance, there are annually produced on the globe over 4,000,000,000 gallons of wine. Of this amount the United States produces only about 50,000,000 gallons.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Mr. Gompers, the labor leader, has taken upon himself the task of defeating Congressmen Littlefield and Cannon for re-election. The latter, who is Speaker of the House, and familiarly known as "Uncle Joe" to his constituents, defies Gompers or any other of the labor leaders to come to his district and meet him in joint debate.

If the negro soldiers stationed at Fort Brown, Texas, are not withdrawn there will probably be a "battle royal" between them and the Texas Rangers ere many moons. They have been insolent to the extent of committing many depredations, and Senator Bailey has requested the U. S. Government to remove them to another post.

The greatest mistake some of the alleged newspaper men make is to imagine that everything in their papers should be "original." The clippings expressing the thoughts of hundreds of bright men in the fraternity is much better and more appreciated by readers than the opinions of one man.

The postmaster at St. Louis had received a number of complaints about one of his mail carriers flirting with ladies along the street. A government inspector dropped into St. Louis and kept a close watch on the carrier in question and as a result he was dismissed from the service.

Maxim Gorky says it is not the torch of liberty but the dollar that is blazing in the land of the statue on Bedloe's Island. Perhaps this is Maxim's way of insinuating that we have money to burn.

Both the Democrats and Republicans are calling for one dollar subscriptions to their campaign fund. We do not imagine, however, that large contributions would be declined.

When Paul Morton sees the railroads getting soaked $40,000 apiece for rebating he probably notices that things were different when he was in the railroad business.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning." You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity.

THE BREAKERS

THE BREAKERS is second to none in location and beach attractions. It is the ideal hotel for summer tourists. Situated upon a high bluff overlooking the ocean, and less than two hundred feet from the rolling surf, it combines the benefits of an ocean voyage with the pleasures of a shore resort. The rooms are large all outside, en suite and single with baths, and thoroughly screened. The dining-room is on the ocean side and one of the most attractive rooms of the hotel. Electric lighting, telephone service and immediate connection with an up-to-date livery.

Bus will meet all trains.

In addition to The Breakers it has been possible to add the use of the Clarendon bath houses, bowling alley, pool tables, dancing pavilion and the famous Clarendon fishing pier. The table will maintain the high standard to which Mr. Holt pledges himself, wherever he assumes the management.

The proof of all is to join with the many who are booking for the season.

Never in the history of the naval stores industry has prices ruled as high or the demand been so strong at this time of the year as they are now.

Lake Helen will have their school building enlarged so as to accommodate the graded school they propose to have this winter. The county school board appropriated $600 for this benefit.

Ernest Webb, who was sometime ago injured by an accident to an Atlantic Coast Line train at Lakeland on which he was engineer, has sued that company for $45,000 damages, claiming contributory negligence on the part of the railroad company to have caused his injuries.

For some time there has been a movement in a quiet way for the enlarging of the boundaries of the city of Miami, taking in what is known as North Miami, Baldwintown and Graham's addition. In the new territory, which it is proposed to take in, there are now something like a thousand people residing.

At the meeting of the board of aldermen of Key West Thursday afternoon Mr. Judd, the expert accountant who was employed to examine the city books, announced that he had concluded his work, but would not be able to submit his report until after his return to New York, when it would be printed and sent to the board.

Gov. Broward and Hon. John S. ard spoke in Seville Square in Pen- ola Monday night to a crowd iously estimated at from 1,500 to 0 people. The debate was on the rglades drainage question and was resting throughout. Many times both the speakers applauded. all accounts it was a Broward d, but a fair one, nevertheless.

e strike of the conductors and mo- men of the Key West Street Car Company, which originated Tuesday morning, is still on, although the cars have run once or more each day, but close down at night. The cause of the strike was the refusal of Louis Pinder, one of the motormen, to carry out a trolley party of negroes. Pinder was discharged by the manager and another man carried out the party.

Bolt Strikes Chicago Church.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Three hundred worshipers at the Hegowisch Swedish Lutheran church were thrown into a panic Sunday by a bolt of lightning, which set fire to the biuling. A. C. Anderson and Miss Anna Olsen were thrown to the floor and rendered unconscious, but were later revived. None was injured in leaving the place and acting under the direction of the pastor, several of the men returned to the church and extinguished the fire.

Railroads Short on Men.

Pittsburg, Aug. 21.—Railroads entering Pittsburg are in sore straits for men to man their trains. Some of them have raised the age limit established for new employes some years ago, while others are abandoning it altogether. The tremendous increase in the freight business finds them all shorthanded, while at the same time the western railroads are draining the eastern market of all available men to help move the crops.

Murdered at Church.

Troy, Ala., Aug. 21.—At Hopewell Primitive Baptist church 12 miles below Troy late Sunday afternoon John Richburg was shot and killed by Davis Whitehead, both being young, unmarried white men. It was preaching and communion day at Hopewell, with dinner on the ground, the services extendeding into the afternoon. After services closed and most of the people had departed, a difficulty arose. Richburg endeavored to quiet matters, and Whitehead joined in the quarrel. In a short while shooting began, and Richburg was killed. It is alleged that Whitehead fired a number of times and that Richburg fired twice. It is not learned who shot first. Whitehead escaped and has not yet been apprehended. Both men were prominently connected.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Believed Strike Will Be Called Off.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 21.—At the headquarters of the Alabama district of the United Mine Workers of America, the vote recently cast by the locals on the question of whether or not the strike shall be called off at the mines of the four big furnace companies, is being counted by the auditing committee. While nothing official has been given out, it is believed the count will show a majority in favor of calling off the strike, which has been in progress since July 25, 1904, and has involved about 6,000 workers.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. MAY SETTLE IN DIXIE LAND.

F. W. Grauert, Immigration Expert, Tours Georgia and Alabama.

Atlanta, Aug. 21.—Frederick William Grauert, who for many years has made a careful study of immigration, was in Atlanta a short time Sunday enroute to New York, where he expects to perfect arrangements for the establishment of a German colony in the south.

He has just made a tour of Georgia and Alabama and expressed himself as more than pleased with the conditions in the two states. Mr. Grauert proposes to start the colony by bringing some 200 German and German-American families to the south at first, this number being augmented year by year.

In speaking of the natural resources an dadvantages of the south, Mr Grauert said:

"The Germans are naturally agriculturalists. They prefer tilling the land to any other employment and it is just this kind of citizens that the south needs to further its development."

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204½ N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run-down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Lost Money, He Suicides.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Another suicide was added to the list Monday caused by the wrecking of the Milwaukee avenue state bank. Edward Holloreb, 45 years of age, who two months ago deposited $250 in the bank, hanged himself from a pile of lumber in sight of a number of men in boats on the lake front. Friends of Holloreb claim that the loss of the money so pressed on him that for several days his mind appeared to have been unbalanced. Receiver Dewes closed the Malwaukee Co-operative Store, the Stensland enterprise, Monday. Notices were posted on the windows that the store had been closed in preparation for a receiver's sale.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

THE FACE ON THE CENT.

It Is Not That of an Indian, but of a Pretty Little Girl.

Mrs. Sarah Longacre Keen, who lived and died in Philadelphia, came nearer being the queen of the American mint than any woman who ever lived. With the exception of Queen Victoria, whose image was engraved on every coin of the British and Indian empires, Mrs. Keen was first in the number of her metal photographs. Her face as a girl of twelve summers is to be seen on every American cent issued since 1836 from Uncle Sam's coin factory.

It is usually assumed that the face on the head side of the copper is that of an Indian, but a close look will reveal a Saxon profile. Just borrow a cent and look at it. The setting is that of an Indian.

Between 1828 and 1840 James Barton Longacre was chief engraver in the United States mint in Philadelphia. In 1835 a competition was opened for sketches and engravings for the new copper cent that was to be issued and which has since been in service. There were over a thousand designs offered. The prize was a good one. Longacre racked his brain for some original and singular design that would strike the judges, but for months he failed to satisfy himself.

One morning a number of Indians, with their chief, who had been to pay their respects to the great white chief in Washington, came to the city and were shown through the mint. They were introduced to the white chief's picture maker, who was just then showing his young daughter Sarah the great concern. The old chief was attracted by the sweet faced maiden and her interest in his feathers and paint. She childishly wondered how she would look in the feathered headgear. This was told the chief, who solemnly divested himself of his feathers and had them placed on the girl's head. The effect was so striking that the father took time to make a sketch of the picture, finishing it afterward for his own amusement.

At the last moment of the period given for sending in engravings he bethought himself of the possibility of the combination of Indian feathers and Saxon sweetness. He got it in, and much sport was made of the child at the time in the city because of the incident. The sketch passed through the seventh sifting and finally reached the last round. By one vote it won, and ever since Sarah Longacre's young face has served for the humblest of coins, than which no single coin in the world has such tremendous circulation.—Detroit News-Tribune.

Telling the Time.

One of the accurate ways of telling the time is to use your hand as an hour mark. Nothing simpler. All farmers not possessed of watches or clocks and who have some practical notions of common utilities not invented by man but given to us by the Creator, know the rule. It is necessary to keep in mind the hour of sunrise and sunset and to hold the arm straight out from the shoulder, with the hand at right angles, bending from the wrist forward. If the sun sets at 7 o'clock and is still high in the heavens close one eye and make three measures of the width of the palm near the thumb. Each measure means one hour. Three measures mean three hours, so that the time thus obtained is 7 less 3, or 4 o'clock. With practice you can beat the average watch.—New York Press.

REGULAR LIVING.

What Nature Demands In Return For Good Health.

First of all, one thing that nature won't stand is irregularity. We cannot safely bottle up sleep tonight for tomorrow night's use, nor force our stomachs one meal because we expect to eat sparingly the next, nor become exhausted in working night and day, expecting to make it up later.

Nature does nothing before her appointed time, and any attempt to hurry her invariably means ultimate disaster. She takes note of all our transactions, physical, mental and moral, and places every item to our credit.

There is no such thing as cheating nature. She may not present her bill on the day we violate her law, but if we overdraw our account at her bank and give her a mortgage on our minds and bodies she will surely foreclose. She may lend us all we want today, but tomorrow, like Shylock, she will demand the last ounce of flesh. Nature does not excuse man for weakness, incompetence or ignorance. She demands that he be at the top of his condition.

Nature's machinery, as it exists in the human body, is most complicated and delicately adjusted. No machinery constructed by man can compare with it in the perfection and proportion of all its working parts. Every machinist knows that his wheels and cams and gearing must run absolutely true and with uniformity or they will soon break down. It is the same with the machine that keeps the human body going.—New York American.

The Change of a Word.

"Spanking" did not suggest chastisement originally. It was unknown to Johnson in this sense; to him a "spanker" meant "a person who takes long steps with agility." Rapid motion seems to be the root idea of the word "spank," which is not merely representative of the sound of the act, as "slap" and "smack" are. The low German "spakkern," or "spenkern" to run and spring about quickly, is close to the original meaning, hence a "spanking pace," a "spanking breeze" and a "spanker," in the sense of an active and sturdy person.

CAUSE OF THE DELUGE.

Queer Tradition of the Aboriginal Blacks of Australia.

The aboriginal blacks of Australia have a queer tradition about the flood. They say that at one time there was no water on the earth at all, except in the body of an immense frog, where men and women could not get it. There was a great council on the subject, and it was found out that if the frog could be made to laugh the waters would run out of his mouth and the drought be ended.

So several animals were made to dance and caper before the frog to induce him to laugh, but he did not even smile, and so the waters remained in his body. Then some one happened to think of the queer contortions into which the eel could twist itself, and it was straightaway brought before the frog. And when the frog saw the wriggling he laughed so loud that the whole earth trembled, and the waters poured out of his mouth in a great flood, in which many people were drowned.

The black people were saved from drowning by the pelican. This thoughtful bird made a big canoe and went with it all among the islands that appeared here and there above the surface of the water and gathered in the black people and saved them.

An Artist's Feat.

One of the most remarkable and most artistic of twenty-four hours' records stands to the credit of Sir Edwin Landseer, who had promised a picture for the spring exhibition of the Royal British institution in 1845. On the day before the opening he was found standing in front of an untouched canvas. "I shall send that to the institution tonight, a finished picture," he declared to the astonished messenger who had been sent by the hanging committee to see if the promised picture was ready, "and have consequently given orders not to be disturbed." True to his word, Landseer put the finishing touch to his canvas and dispatched it to Pall Mall that very evening; and as "The Cavalier's Pets" it was one of the greatest successes of the exhibition.

OLD TIME SEA COOKS

THEIR DUTIES AND PERQUISITES IN THE BRITISH NAVY.

Many Sources of Revenue For the Bosses of the Galleys—There Were Other Things They Had to Do Besides Preparing the Meals.

Sea cooks were and are very necessary persons in the internal economy of the ship of war, but there were rogues among them as among all classes of men, says the London Globe. There were sea cooks who rose by the aid of influence and knavery to very lucrative positions. Lord Nottingham, when lord high admiral, gave a patent to his own cook to appoint all the cooks in the navy.

Stewards, purveyors, cooks and bakers are classed together by one writer as the chief beneficiaries under the system of peculation and perquisites which at one time made the navy so happy a hunting ground for the rascals of the country. But they were not all permitted to ply their trade with impunity, and one sea cook got seven years' hard labor from Sir John Fielding for a long series of frauds. And in sentencing the man the judge expressed his regret that he could not order him to be hanged at the hospital gates.

Pea soup was generally the best ration the men had and was certainly the most liked. Potatoes were always served in the skins, sometimes two to each man, and a good natured cook was frequently prevailed upon to cook cakes and duffs that the men had made themselves, demanding for his services either a pot of grog or a portion of the dish he cooked.

Sometimes, however, he could only be bribed by money, and in that way increased his pay of 35 shillings a month, in addition to which he was nearly always in receipt of a pension of 11s. 8d. per month. Besides these sources of revenue he also made a good deal of money from the sale of "slush," the fat scraped from the ship's coppers after each meal had been served, and half of which was his perquisite. The other half belonged to the ship for greasing the bottom and running tackle.

The ship's cook was, moreover, honored with a guard of two marines, who stood sentry over the door of the galley during the preparation of meals to prevent unwarranted raids upon the provisions by ship's thieves; he did not wear a uniform nor was he expected to keep watch, being allowed to sleep in comfort and comparative privacy throughout the night on the lower gun deck. But, on the other hand, he had some duties not connected with food, among them the preparation when the ship was in port of a hot poker for firing salutes.

And it was an established custom of the navy that the ship was not properly paid off until the pennant was struck by the cook. This operation he was expected to perform as the last officer of the ship, and until he had done it no officer could consider himself discharged or at liberty to leave the port. This rule held good though every seaman had left the ship, and sometimes the cook himself, in a fit of absentmindedness, went off without carrying out the task, and had to be routed out again before the incensed officers could leave for their homes. There will be seamen alive today who have heard the phrase, "Every man to his station, and the cook to the foresheet," and the landsman who has read Marryat will always connect the man of the galley with the famous phrase, "Son of a sea cook."

In addition to the ship's cook, of course, there were, as now, the mess cooks, men who were appointed by the seamen themselves to be presidents of the messes for the week, and who had to receive the provisions for the mess from the purser at the daily issuing of victuals and who had to hand these on to the ship's cook in good time. As compensation for his trouble the mess cook drew a cook's, or double, portion of grog, and he deserved it, for his duties were arduous and his critics severe.

If he spoiled the duff he was tried by a jury of the mess, and this jury was gathered by hoisting a mess swab or beating a tin dish between decks forward. He was condemned to most painful punishments if found guilty. He was also the carver for the mess, and in order to prevent favoritism a blindfolded member of the mess was required to call out the name of the person who was to receive the portion as it was placed on the plate. Small or large, that portion was given to the man named, and probably no more satisfactory method of dealing with the question could have been found.

CURIOUS LAND LAW.

Owners In Belgium Do Not Control Beyond a Certain Depth.

One of the curious phases of the land law in Belgium is that the earth of a landowner beyond a certain depth does not belong to him. Should the owner of the surface discover a coal or gold deposit underlying his property he must first obtain a government concession before he can begin mining operations. The land beyond the prescribed depth in which wealth in the raw has been discovered may be conceded to a person other than the surface owner, who may operate under certain government regulations, one of which is that the owner of the surface is entitled to 3 per cent of the value extracted.

The mine pays to the government an amount determined by the value and importance of the concession, after which it must pay to the government a sum proportioned to the value of the total extraction. The government names the conditions under which the mines as well as other industrial establishments shall be operated and protects and safeguards the health and lives of the workmen as well as provides for the public safety.

The minister of industry and labor appoints a state board of mining engineers, authorized to regulate the working of all mines and all establishments considered dangerous or insanitary, whether shaft or open mines, quarries, factories, coke oven plants or briquette works.—Boston Globe.

A ZULU LEGEND.

Odd Story of the Origin of This Savage People.

The Zulus account for their origin, says a correspondent of the Country Gentleman (English), by a story of a talking elephant who fed upon children. He met a woman laden with an ax and bundle of fagots, accompanied by her child. Seeing the elephant, she guessed his intention and pleaded, "Spare my child, oh, elephant!" The elephant refused. "Then," said the mother, "if this evil must happen swallow me, too, oh, elephant!" So the elephant swallowed mother and child, and they found themselves with all the other children who were eaten previously. By and by the child grew hungry, and the mother lit a fire with her fagots. She then with her ax cut away the elephant's flesh, cooked it, and they all ate. As the fire burned, its great heat filled the elephant with pain, and he ran and ran and ran till they felt the thunder of his hoofs racing over hill and valley. At length, exhausted, he dropped down dead. Using her ax, the mother chopped and chopped until she made an opening in the elephant's side. After this they crept out and became a new nation in a new country.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Horses and Oil Cakes.

"Say, d'you know anything 'bout hosses, hey? D'ye know they'll eat pork? Well, they will when it's fed 'em an' they have to. The heaves stops subsequent, though they're an all fired sight wuss afterwards. Belle went right onto a meat diet, hog meat an' oil cakes. Yep, linseed oil—it'll fat a rail fence. Belle took on weight amazin'. Cur'us thing 'bout oil cakes, though. Once a hoss has been fatted on 'em an' then grows pickid ag'in there ain't nothin' in the world'll put flesh onto him a second time. You can try as much as you're mind to; it ain't no use."—American Magazine.

STEVENSON, Ala., June 6, 1901.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis: Dear Sir—I have been a great sufferer from bladder trouble for two years and my case was of a very severe nature, compelling me to have several painful and dangerous operations. I have also taken many different remedies. I took Swamp Root for three years and Warner's Safe Cure two years and they only gave temporary relief. After having two operations and preparing for the third, I saw your Texas Wonder advertised and purchased a bottle. I got almost immediate relief and have continued to improve ever since. My doctor said my bladder had grown together in three places, and I was suffering almost death. No man living can say more than I can for your Texas Wonder, and I call it a world's wonder, and I hope all who suffer will give it a trial. Wishing you success, I am

Yours truly,
W. C. DANIEL.

There are some people who are mighty careless about throwing old truck into the alleyways. Such people should be taught a little civic pride by a modest fine. It is impossible for the authorities to keep places clean if people will persist in such practices.

There should be no factions in our city. There should be a mutual interest in the prosperity of our people. When we see indifference to the well-being of its citizens, we see a town all wise men shun. Success and failure are each a part of life, and often those who have made the hardest fight are vanquished in the race.

The elder Mrs. Kennard was painfully injured Monday by falling on the sidewalk between O'Neill's and Burkhim's stores on the East Side. She was carried into the latter store, where she received medical attention. The sidewalk has a fall of about a foot at this place, and it is strange that many people are not injured there.

Some boys do not earn $20 a year, yet they can afford to smoke cigarettes and use tobacco in other forms. Little boys should think it over seriously before commencing to use tobacco. Boys who do not use the weed or loaf continuously on the streets are much better models to follow. No boy should wish to pattern after a profane, foul-mouthed, worthless street loafer.
